FROM POLICY to LAW
What is the role of the executive government?

The EXECUTIVE GOVERNMENT decides policy, then drafts and introduces bills to Parliament.

1. The Executive Government

2. Bills are considered by PARLIAMENT

3. If passed by the Parliament, the bills are approved by the GOVERNOR-GENERAL

4. Bills become Acts of Parliament and therefore laws, which are administered by GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS

Department of DEFENCE

Department of AGRICULTURE, FISHERIES and FORESTRY

Department of HEALTH and AGEING